Organizational Context

The World Leadership Alliance-Club de Madrid (WLA-CdM) is the largest, worldwide assembly of political leaders working to strengthen democratic values, good governance and the well-being of citizens across the globe. As a non-profit, non-partisan, international organization, its network is composed of more than 100 democratic former presidents and prime ministers from over 60 countries, together with a global body of advisors and experts practitioners, who offer their voice and agency on a pro bono basis, to today's political, civil society leaders and policymakers. The WLA-CdM responds to a growing demand for trusted advice in addressing the challenges involved in achieving 'democracy that delivers', building bridges, bringing down silos and promoting dialogue for the design of better policies for all. This alliance represents an independent effort towards sustainable development, inclusion and peace, not bound by the interest or pressures of institutions and governments, by providing the experience, access and convening power of its Members.

Objectives

The Communications Volunteer’s main role will be to support the implementation of the communications and advocacy strategies of WLA-CdM, under the overall supervision of the Communications Manager and the Communications Officer, working also in direct collaboration with other colleagues in Outreach and Development Department.
